1. MENNONITE CHURCH USA STAFF (ADAPTED)

We pray for all impacted by COVID:

- for comfort for those who have lost loved ones, and for those who have been quarantined and are feeling alone.

- for healing for those who are sick.

- for safety, strength and compassion for medical workers who may be overwhelmed caring for those who are battling various illnesses, and workers who are exposed to greater risks.

- that public officials act with compassion and wisdom as they work to contain the virus.

- for those without access to health care, and for those who do not know how they will make it if they get sick and cannot go to work.

- that your peace will guard our hearts and minds so that we are not overcome by anxiety and fear.

God, inspire in us ways to show your love to one another and to ourselves.

Guide our hearts and our actions to greater care, kindness and generosity in the midst of these fears and uncertainties. Amen

2. THE ALL AFRICA CONFERENCE OF CHURCHES

BASING ON COVENANT DOCUMENT ON HIV/AIDS 8th GENERAL ASSEMBLY, CAMEROON, 2003

The Lord God is the creator of heaven and earth.
the creator of all life forms in the earth
He created all life and everything good.

In this COVID era,
he sees the misery of his people,
who are infected and affected by this disease.

He has heard their cry in this epidemic.
He knows their sufferings and he has come down to deliver them.
So he calls to send us to the infected and affected,
to bring his people, his creation,
out of this epidemic. Amen

3. THE UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

In this time of COVID-19, we pray:
When we are not sure, God, - help us be calm.

When information comes – from all sides, correct & not, help us to discern.

When fear makes it hard to breathe,
and anxiety seems to be the order of the day,
slow us down, God.

Help us to reach out with our hearts,
when we cannot touch with our hands.

Help us to love as perfectly as we can,
knowing that "perfect love casts out all fear."

Help us, O God, that we might help each other.
In the love of the Creator,
in the name of the Healer,
in the life of the Holy Spirit that is in all and with all, we pray. Amen

4. REVD DR CRAIG PHILLIPS, ARLINGTON EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE USA

Lord Jesus, we pray today that you will come to us in all our anxiety and uncertainty, our sorrows and despair,
and in our loneliness and isolation.

Come through the walls and doors that separate us from one another and from you.

Help us not to be afraid but to trust in your goodness and love.

We know that you are always with us,
so lift our weary hearts
so that we might give you praise.

Be with us as you promised your disciples so long ago in Galilee, now and always, even “to the end of the age.” Amen.
5. CATHOLIC BISHOPS’ OF THE PHILIPPINES

God our Father, we come to you in our need to ask your protection against COVID 19 that has claimed lives and has affected many.

We pray for your grace for the people tasked with studying the nature and cause of this virus and its disease and of stemming the tide of its transmission.

Guide the hands and minds of medical experts that they may minister to the sick with competence and compassion, and of those governments and private agencies that must find cure and solution to this epidemic.

We pray for those afflicted may they be restored to health soon.
Grant us the grace to work for the good of all and to help those in need.

6. ADAPTED FROM AN EASTER ADDRESS BY GENERAL BRIAN PEDDLE, SALVATION ARMY

Following Easter, we often hear sermons about the road to Emmaus, when Jesus came alongside and walked with the disciples. May our hearts “burn within us” because we are enjoying his presence through prayer.

We pray for:
those who have lost family members; those who are alone, isolated and afraid; for many who have very little during this time of isolation; families whose futures seem uncertain.

We pray to support the army of essential workers who are holding us up.

May we pray with urgency that God’s mighty hand will hold back and stop COVID-19.
God help us to be faithful. Amen

7. ADAPTED BY CAFOD (ENGLAND & WALES) FROM AN EBOLA PRAYER BY CARITAS GUINEA

Your loving care Lord Jesus, when you walked with us on earth you spread your healing power. We place in your loving care all who are affected by Coronavirus.

Keep us strong in faith, hope and love. Bring relief to our sick, console our bereaved, protect those who care for us.

We lift our prayer to you Lord, and trust in your infinite mercy, as we wait for the daybreak. Amen.

8. MELANESIAN PRAYER

O Jesus, be the canoe that holds me up in the sea of life. Be the rudder that keeps me in the straight road. Be the outrigger that supports me in times of temptation.

Let your Spirit be my sail that carries me through each day.

Keep my body strong so I can paddle steadfastly on in the voyage of life.
We ask this prayer though Christ Our Lord. Amen.

9. TAIZÉ COMMUNITY, FRANCE - BROTHER ALOIS EXTRACT FROM AN EASTER MEDITATION

God of love, look upon your family. Come to the help of our humanity stricken by so much suffering.

Comfort those who are weeping, support those who are boldly taking up the challenge of solidarity.

Through the resurrection of Christ, you open up for us a horizon as yet uncharted, where a new light is appearing.

And so, just like on Easter morning, we can find hope again and say with our lives: “Christ is risen!” - “Yes, he is risen indeed!” With grim news besetting us every day, we ask God to come. Amen.
10. REVD FLORENCE LI
AMERICAN BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETIES

O Merciful God,
in a time of unknowingness, fear and lack of knowledge regarding the origins of coronavirus.

We come to you with open arms,
Welcoming people from all other places,
Acknowledging our human frailty and our need for your healing power.

O God, we pray for the loss of life,
For those who care for the sick and ask for recovery to those in need of healing.
We pray for the cure of this disease and restoration of health.

We praise you, O God,
in time of trouble and confusion;
You have reminded us that you are our loving God and Saviour.
Help us to spread Christian faith
as we seek your truth and love each day. Amen.

11. THE METHODIST CHURCH OF SINGAPORE

Hear our cry, Almighty God.
Listen to our prayer.
How long will we have to hide in our homes from this invisible enemy?

Where will it strike next?
And whom? And what if ... ?
Our screens relay a continuous escalation of suffering and death around the world.

Panic and anxiety abound.
Our souls are weary from the strain of the life-altering unknowns.

Heavenly Father,
from the depths of our pain and confusion,
we cry out to You.

From fear-filled hearts and anxious minds,
we plead with You.

Rescue us, Father of compassion and grace.

We lift up our eyes to You, Lord God,
the One who sits enthroned in heaven. Amen.

12. ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN IRELAND
KILDARE & LEIGHLIN DIOCESE

Loving and healing God, We, turn to you in prayer,

Confident that you are with us and with all people in every moment.

We stand before you as people of hope,
Trusting in your care and protection.

May your faithful love support us and soothe the anxiety of our hearts.

Generous God,
fill us with compassion and concern for others, young and old,

That we may look after one another in these challenging days.

Bring healing to those who are sick with the virus and be with their families.

May those who have died rest in your eternal embrace.
Comfort their family and friends.

Strengthen and protect all medical professionals caring for the sick and all who work in our medical facilities.

Give wisdom to leaders in healthcare and governance that they may make the right decisions for the well-being of people.

We pray in gratitude for all those in our country who will continue to work in the days ahead in so many fields of life for the sake of us all.

Bless them and keep them safe.

O God of creation and life,
we place ourselves in your protection.

May the mantle of your peace enfold us this day and tomorrow. Amen.
13. THE UNITED REFORMED CHURCH

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. (Psalm 46:1, NRSV).
As so much is re-shaped by Coronavirus Covid 19, let us pray with:

People left unwell, beckoned by death or bereaved.

People providing professional health care and advice, looking after loved ones at home or working to create treatments and cures.

People shaping the response of nations and neighbourhoods, of commerce and industry, of service & voluntary organisations and of communities of faith.

People who are anxious or afraid, alone or isolated.

Living, loving God, we praise you, & through times of peril we lean into you, for in Jesus Christ. You have trodden paths as difficult as ours, revealing there a love that nothing defeats, a love that bears us through.

Even as we strive to behave responsibly, and to care reliably, so we feel that in these uncertain times we might trust you are with us, our refuge and strength, and our faith, hope and love might be renewed, through Jesus Christ, Amen.

14. THE ROMANIAN ORTHODOX CHURCH

You are the healer of our souls and bodies, give recovery to those affected by sickness by raising them up from the bed of pain, to praise You, Merciful Saviour, and protect the healthy from any disease. Bless, strengthen and protect with your Grace, O Lord, all those who, with love of people and sacrifice, care for the sick at their homes or hospitals.

Remove all sickness and suffering from people & teach us to cherish life and health as your gifts. Give us, Lord God, your peace and fill our hearts with unwavering faith in your protection, reliable in your help and love towards you and your neighbour. To you belongs the mercy to save us, Our God.

15. ARCHDEACON CAROLE HUGHES
AUCKLAND DIOCESE, NEW ZEALAND
International Anglican Women’s Network

Holy God, as we move into being your church in new ways may we pray for and support one another, and know the inner calm that comes from faith in you.

Bless those who are sick and those who are anxious and alone.

As we experience physical isolation may our social connections be made stronger.

As people of all nations may we unite in peace so that your love will always be present.

Bless us through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

16. THE HOLY SYNOD OF THE ORTHODOX CHURCH OF AMERICA (ADAPTED)

O God Almighty, Lord of heaven and earth, and of all creation visible and invisible, in your ineffable goodness, look down upon us, your people gathered in your Holy Name.

Be our helper and defender in this day of affliction. You know our weakness. You hear our cry in repentance and contrition of heart.

O Lord who loves mankind, deliver us from the impending threat of the Corona Virus.

Send your angel to watch over us and protect us. Grant health and recovery to those suffering from this virus.

Guide the hands of physicians and preserve those who are healthy.

Enable us to continue to serve our suffering brothers and sisters in peace that together we may glorify your most honourable and majestic name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
17. PRAYER OF COURAGE
CORYMEELA COMMUNITY NORTHERN IRELAND

We bear witness to our faith,
Knowing that we are called To lives of courage, love
And reconciliation
In the ordinary and extraordinary moments
Of each day

May we be courageous today.

May we learn today.

May we love today.

Amen

18. THE GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE ASSEMBLIES
OF GOD IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

As we begin this journey together, I ask you to consider what God said to Joshua as he led the children of Israel toward the flooded Jordan river. He said: “Stay close to the Ark of the covenant because you have never been this way before.”

We can say the same thing about the moment we are living through right now. We too have never been this way before. Just as they had never walked through a flooded river while God held back the waters, we have never experienced mass isolations and self-quarantine.

But we can be sure that the same God who held back the waters for His people then is still the protector and provider of His people today. Once they passed through to the other side, they were never the same. They went from “wilderness wanderers” to landowners. They ceased to be “manna gathers” to become “fruit harvesters”.

Who knows, we could be in the middle of the same kind of transformation? This I do know, the same admonishment God gave to Joshua is still good for us; “Stay close to God and His word, go where you see Him go and do what His word says and you will come out the other side of this better off than when you started the journey.”

Amen.

19. BASED ON A STATEMENT
BY MYANMAR’S CARDINAL CHARLES BO

O Lord, We pray for all the people and countries affected by this lethal virus.
Let us remember every brother and sister affected in our prayers every day.

Let us pray that this disaster, like so many others is a time for humanity’s fellowship when maps and borders collapse.

Lord let us rejoice at the commendable fellowship manifested now across continents by so many good people.

Lord of Life who protects people from all evil may we become an “army of prayer warriors” to rise in robust defiance against this sickness with our prayers and actions.

May this current outbreak, be an occasion for introspection on the ultimate meaning and destination of human life and the arrogance and audacity of human institutions.

As Lord we acknowledge, in humility, our human fragility and mortal nature remembering that you are the only superpower over our lives.

Our Lord we remember that disasters and virus pandemics periodically remind humanity that we all have only one planet strengthen us that we realise that we either stand together or fall together.

Lord we ask this in Your Name. Amen

20. REV. LEE HULL MOSES,
THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST, AMERICA AND CANADA

God of all life and all hope, hear our prayers.
As the world grows ever more anxious and fearful, may your spirit of comfort and peace be with us.

As changes sweep over us, as uncertainty surrounds us, help us to know that you are with us.

Always and forever, you are with us, and nothing can separate us from your love. In the name of Christ Jesus, we pray. Amen.
21. THE LUTHERAN WORLD FEDERATION

God our Healer, show your compassion for the whole human family that is in turmoil and burdened with illness and with fear. Hear our cry.

Come to our aid as the coronavirus spreads globally, heal those who are sick, support and protect their families and friends from being infected. Hear our cry.

Grant us your spirit of love and self-discipline so that we may come together, working to control and eliminate the coronavirus. Hear our cry.

Make us vigilant, attentive, and proactive in the eradication of all diseases that create suffering and often result in death for many people. Hear our cry.

Heal our self-centeredness and indifference that makes us worry only when the virus threatens us, open ways beyond timidity and fear that too easily ignore our neighbour. Hear our cry.

Strengthen and encourage those in public health services and in the medical profession: care-givers, nurses, attendants, doctors, all who commit themselves to caring for the sick and their families. Hear our cry. Amen.

22. THE CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA
(VIA THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND WEBSITE)

God our Father, by whose mercy the world turns safely into darkness and returns again to light:

we place in your hands our unfinished tasks, our unsolved problems, and our unfulfilled hopes, knowing that only what you bless will prosper.

To your love and protection we commit each other and all those we love, knowing that you alone are our sure defender, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

23. REVD DR MANHONG MELISSA LIN, ASSOCIATE GENERAL SECRETARY, THE CHINA CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

When human life is disturbed, disrupted, and threaten by the novel coronavirus, we pray to you, God of life.

Grant us the compassion, humility and self-discipline to value, care about and protect each life.

We pray to you, God of mercy, for all who have suffered directly and indirectly during this global pandemic.

May you sustain, console, and heal them. We pray to you, God of grace, for all good efforts to rescue life and to maintain people’s health.

May you strengthen, guide and protect all who have committed to fight against this disease.

We pray to you, God of righteousness, for justice to prevail.

May you lead us to combat racism, discrimination, stigmatization, and xenophobia with courage in the midst of this health crisis.

We pray to you, God of love, for an early end to the transmission of COVID-19 that is harming all, and for life, health and peace for all, through your mercy, grace and loving care, and through human solidarity, integrity and mutual support. Amen.

24. ADAPTED FROM FRIENDS HOUSE LONDON (QUAKER FAITH & PRACTICE 10.17)

Let us pray:

For the spiritual welfare of our congregations. May members take a warm personal interest in one another’s welfare. May we all be active in pastoral care.

In the greater events of life it is our duty and privilege to share in one another’s joys and sorrows.

May we remember that sympathy thus shown is a potent means of binding us in closer fellowship. Amen.
25. BISHOP GREGORY CAMERON OF ST ASAPH
THE CHURCH IN WALES

Dear Father,
who created us, and redeemed us,
and who has promised us your love,
be with us in a time of danger and of worry.

May those who suffer, or who are ill, know the blessing of your grace, while we who are well be inspired by your Spirit to be wise and to be servants, working for the healing and wholeness of all,
each in our own way.

Keep us calm and cautious, strong and open to service,
So that we take care of those around us,
and also ourselves.
We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

26. PRAYER FROM PAKISTAN
(VIA BRITISH METHODIST CONNEXION)

My Lord Jesus,
We are come to you very humble during Your ministry on Earth you showed Your love by healing people of all ages and stations of life from physical, mental, and spiritual ailments.

O, Lord of Mercy, Be present now to people who need Your loving touch because of COVID-19.
They need Your power of healing through care and treatment.

Kindly take away all fear, anxiety, and feelings of isolation from people receiving treatment.
Protect their families and friends.

Dear Lord, we request for those people who are more likely than others to become severely ill from COVID-19 — the elderly and people with chronic health conditions.

Protect them from harm and be their comfort in this time of uncertainty.

Pray for medical professionals, caregivers, researchers, and leaders responsible for decisions about fighting the new coronavirus. Amen.

27. THE CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY
IN GREAT BRITAIN

Jesus said I will never leave you nor for sake you that you may be boldly say, the Lord is my helper.
(Hebrews 13:5)

Father in your name, we call on you today in the promise of your word.

We pray for those who are at this time struggling with the fears and concerns around this virus.

Father we act in belief and confidence in your promises, knowing that you have not given us the spirit of fear
but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

We therefore embrace the promise of your word, even in the midst of this time of uncertainty.

We are still persuaded that your precious blood heals and makes whole.

We pray for our church family:
we pray for those in our communities who may be feeling insecure and isolated.

We pray for our decision-makers, medical experts, leaders national and international.

Father we rest our cares in your hands,
in the name of Jesus. Amen.

28. REVD DENISE LIERSCH, MODERATOR, SYNOD OF VICTORIA AND TASMANIA
THE UNITING CHURCH OF AUSTRALIA

God of compassion, God-with-us, be with us in these times of uncertainty.
Break into our lives, rekindle our hope and breathe love into our communities, that we might find new ways of supporting and upholding one another, bearing witness to your inclusive love of family, friend, neighbour and stranger alike.
May our love for those most vulnerable in our community become a beacon of hope for all.
In faith, hope and love,
in the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.
THE WORLD PEACE PRAYER

Lead us from death to life,
from falsehood to truth,
lead us from despair to hope,
from fear to trust,
lead us from hate to love,
from war to peace,
Let peace fill our heart,
our world, our universe.

MARY SUMNER (1828-1921)
FOUNDER, THE MOTHERS’ UNION

All this day, O Lord, let me touch as many lives as possible for thee; & every life I touch, do thou by thy spirit quicken, whether through the word I speak,
the prayer I breathe, or the life I live. Amen.
